

3 NIGHTS LUXURY NINGALOO REEF

Wake up with the sun from your eco-luxe safari tent, peeking out to the largest fringing World Heritage-listed coral reef in the world just metres away...with the ancient Western Australian folklore-filled terrain behind you. This is Sal Salis Ningaloo Reef and it can be your luxury safari-style tent home for the next few days...with the Cape Range National Park, kilometres of Indian Ocean and a thousand-star sky all to yourself. Here, time stretches and slows down. It's an opportunity to disconnect from responsibilities and routines, to connect with nature, and most importantly, yourself.
